

Key Question:	Vocabulary:
WHAT MATTERS MOST TO CHRISTIANS & HUMANISTS? (living) 	Humanist- non religious people who believe in a moral code and no after life.
Resources:	Content:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Humanist code for living – Be honest; Use your mind; Tell the truth; do to other people what you would like them to do to you. • Christian code for living – can be summed up in Jesus’ two rules – love God & love your neighbour. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look at Humanist code for living (see resources). How would this help people to behave? What would a Humanist class, school, town look like? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore Christian codes for living (see resources). Explore how Jesus expects his followers to behave through story of “Good Samaritan” (Luke 10:25-37) & Jesus’ attitude on cross (Luke 23:32-35). Jesus talks about actions as fruit – if intentions are bad can they produce good fruit?
How this fits into our lives:	   E. M. Forster, British novelist who wrote “Howards End” & “A room with a View”.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk about the kinds of behaviour & actions pupils think of as bad. Rank ideas & ask why? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on why people do bad/good things. Are we good/ bad people? Link with Christian belief about human beings being made in image of God (Genesis 1:28) & sinful (Genesis 3). Why do Christians think this is a good explanation of why humans are good/bad? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss “a code for living” to help people be good. • Explore meanings of moral concepts like fairness, freedom, truth, honesty, kindness, peace. What do they look like in everyday life? • Discuss what matters most by ranking list of valuable things – family, friends, x box, pets, God, food, being safe, being clever, being beautiful, being good, sport, worship, music, love, honesty, humans. Why do you hold these values & why do they make a difference to your lives? • Consider questions about values: Peace more valuable than money? Love more important than freedom?

•Values can clash. Doing the right thing can be difficult. How do you decide for yourselves?